

Linked verse fathers day poems (6/21/21)

Dear Precious Children, I received a package a month ago for father's day with a question on the envelope about my self control: Could I not open it for a month? Are you kidding--asking me, the master of self control!)&#(*$

In the package was a haiku:

*Happy Father's day
from all of those who love you what a joy it is*

Love, from your kids and grandkids)

Now, how did I know what the card said (two weeks before father's day!?! Well, umm, in terms of self=control,

*Gift just sitting there a peek early? Self-control?
Nah, but joy and love!!!!*

I read a few poems each Shabbat while mom sings.

*Father's Day Haiku
Love and joy in the moment
A timeless embrace*

Love love poppers of awe and surrounded by linked haiku of love and joy!!
--a peek "peak" experience. Thank you thank you!!:) So much love....
