TASSAJARA

Creative words

flow downstream with the current.

Embarrassed..

*writing thoughts
in the meditation room*

Commented [JS1]: This is self-awareness with a twist of self-mockery

From the top of the mountain,

I looked down on the beauty of Tassajara

From within Tassajara, I felt the beauty of my inner home

Commented [JS2]: This is so lovely – you are surrounded by beauty both within and without.

Another set of lovely poems. They all have a very peaceful, big sky, large horizon feel to them. I love reading them, very centering! Love, J
