

THE FINGER

Commented [JS1]: This is precious! So tender and loving. I think the title is perfect, I love the two different fingers involved!

Little pudgy hand wrapped around my finger holding me near for comfort and solace those accepting eyes

Helpless with your beating heart so fragile and tender, don't gasp or choke, little one I'm just starting to know...

Spattering with your orifices as you wish, crying forth into the night you have me wrapped around your finger on our just beginning journey

Little fingers wrapped around my feet held me near for comfort & solace, those averted eyes

Helpless to your beating heart so fragile & tender don't pass a choice woman one

Spattering to your inquiries as you wish, crying forth into the night on your air, joining just by being -
